school spirit

The degree of Ainlay Spirit has grown enormously over the past few years. No longer is Ainlay a school full of unspirited students, we now have the best fans in western Canada, and a student population with as much spirit as numbers. 2500 students can make a lot of noise, which we proved at TVT opening ceremonies, and throughout the year.

Bam Bam, Ainlay's new mascot is a symbol of Ainlay pride. He is larger than life, as is Ainlay's population, he is strong and powerful like our sports teams, and he has a permanent smile which shows the pride he has in his school.

The number of students who take part in rotunda activities and who join Ainlay's great number of clubs are yet another indicator of Ainlay pride.

Past and present Ainlayites all show their anger when the press singles Ainlay out and will continue to chant Ainlay's various new chants for the next 25 years.

There was a lot to be excited about when it came to Ainlay athletics, this year. Although our senior football team had a rocky start, they started to turn things around and that meant some great Titan action on the football field. All four of our volleyball teams were among the strongest in their respective leagues. Our basketball, rugby, soccer and swimming teams also did Ainlay proud.

Ainlay fans definitely know how to cheer on their team, even if at times they aren't too great in numbers.

Ainlay had a great year, hopefully our fans will be as devoted to our athletes in the future as they were this year.

fun...?

School isn't all work and no play. It's the extra things that go on around the school at lunch, after school and even on weekends that make a school special. Ainlayites definitely know how to have fun, that's why we can boast to all our friends, especially those who go to Scona, that we go to the best school in western Canada.

Fun can be dances, rotunda activities, camps, trips, exchanges, and just hanging around with your friends.

Students' Union has a lot to do with the fun you have at school when you're not in class. That's why we were so lucky this year to have a students' union with so much energy that put together so many great activities for us. The year got off to a great start with the grade 10 barbeque and Spirit week. The assembly with the guest speaker also put a smile on everyone's face. October was great with the introduction of Octoberfest and the annual Halloween costume contest. Return to Woodstalk, Christmas, Titan Pride week, Tropical week, Titan Olympics week and all the dances made school just that bit more bearable. If you're coming back to Ainlay next year, remember about all the activities you can take part in and try to make your year as fun as possible, school can't be all work and no play.

around ainlay

By Linda Yu

People, people, everywhere people! Sound familiar? You got it! It's our school between classes.

This year, Harry Ainlay is more crowded than ever. According to school statistics, there are 731 students in Grade 10, 776 in Grade 11, and (prepare to be shocked!) 988 in Grade 12. Students, as well as teachers, are becoming more and more concerned about such an unprecedented large population.

Ever wonder how long it would take you to walk to a class that is three hallways away during a break? The answer is a L-O-N-G time. If you are a fast walker, you will notice that you have to stop almost every two meters; if your speed is average, you will find that you are walking about twice as slowly as you normally would. Not mentioning the discomfort caused by stuffy air, you will be late if you do not start your "journey" early. The most frustrating, as well as amusing, part of this is the volume of the voice you must have in order to carry on a conversation with a friend. Walking through the rotunda is like walking through a battlefield.

The fact that Harry Ainlay has 2495 students is not going to change. Is there anything we could do to make life in a huge school easier to manage?

faces

your friends faces
your friends, friends faces
the faces that make up ainlay

Ainlay is full of thousands of different faces. In fact, Ainlay is known for its cultural diversity, and the ability of the students of different ethnic origins to work and live together peacefully. Occasionally, as in all areas of such a culturally diverse nation like Canada, there are problems. At Ainlay, however, these problems are kept to a minimum. Regardless of different origins and races, we are all united together as Ainlayites, something we can be proud of. That is why the sea of people, and oceans of faces around us, are never those of people different from us, but instead the faces of people we know.

below: Gene Filinovsky, Dave Coles and Todd Gray are but three of the thousands of friendly faces in Ainlay.

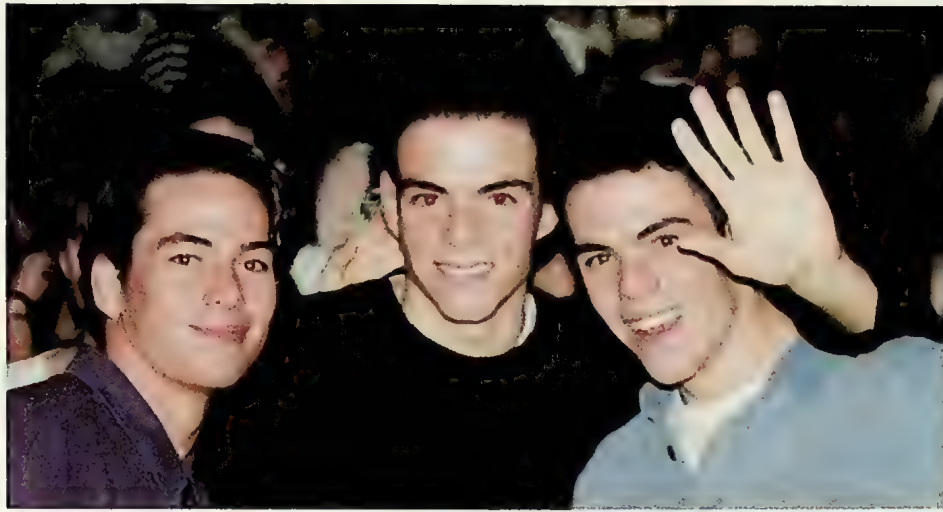

- Charles and Diana are Married

- Prince of Wales has first child

1983 - 22 African Nations are facing starvation

1982 - Gretzky breaks season point record with 212

- E.T. is in a theater near you

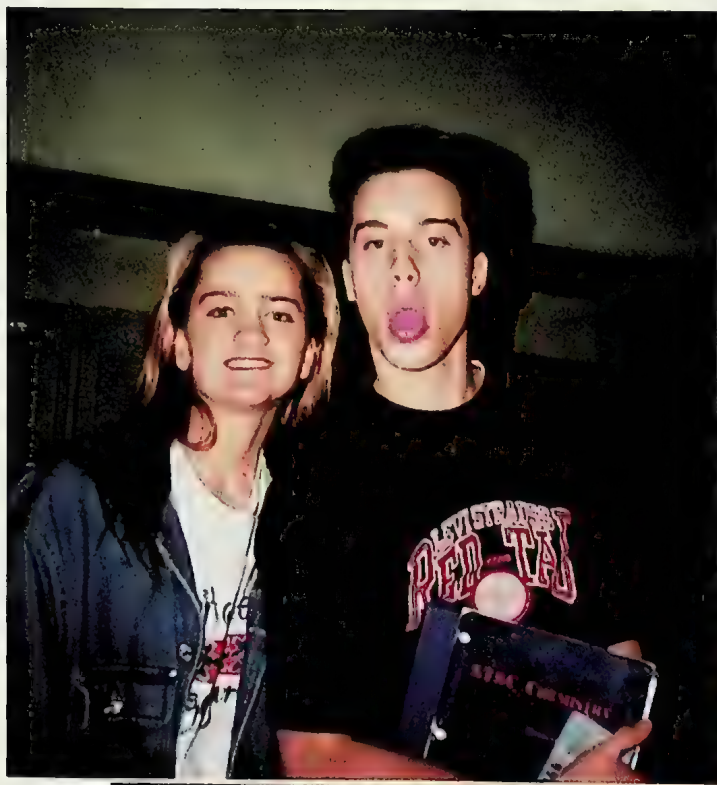

1984 - Michael Jackson's Thriller album tops 37 million sales

- Mulroney becomes Prime Minister

- Reagan postpones the Star Wars defence plan

- Los Angeles Olympics

a day in the life of

A day in a life of Ainlay is extremely busy. The bell goes and the day begins. First challenge of the day is to get to your class without being late, some have more success than others but we all blame it on the crowded hallways (Yeh right!). When you get to class, you struggle to keep awake while the teacher drones on for hours. Lunch is spent at various club meetings, rehearsals, Student Union activities, in the gym, or just hanging out in the rotunda. After school there are various activities. Take your pick of any of the following: Band rehearsals (yes there are a lot of practices), team practices (except for the swim team who start their morning in the pool), sport events to go cheer at, or try to catch an almost full bus home. The activities continue on the weekend with tournaments to play in, work at, or just cheer on Ainlay. A day at Ainlay is never the same twice.

1987 - Stock Market crash

- Tornado hits Edmonton

- Wayne Gretzky marries

- Chernobyl accident

- 19 year old German pilot lands in the Red Square

1988 - Olympics in South Korea

Ainlay students have the opportunity to learn in many different ways.

1989 - San Francisco hit by earthquake

- Berlin wall crumbles

1990 - Iraq invades Kuwait

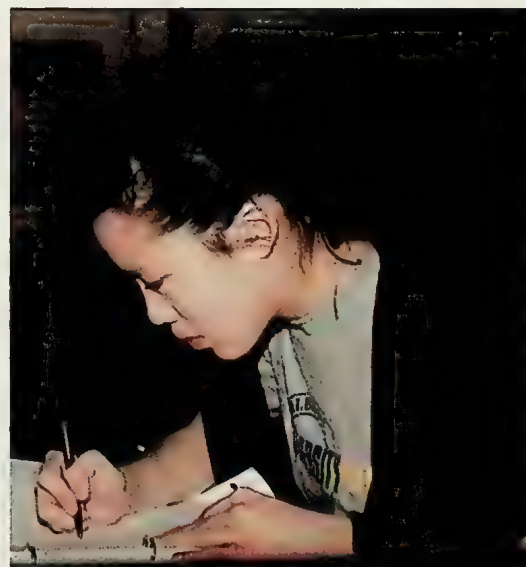

- Ben Johnson loses world record due to steroid use

- Exxon oil spill

- Last of $1 bills roll off the press

A sometimes unfortunate part of school life, but the real reason we are at school is to go to class, work, and learn. Luckily Ainlay has great teachers, wonderful facilities, and caring administrators, that make learning as painless as possible. Ainlay gets to be called a "composite" high school, because of the broad diversity of courses offered here. You can take anything from drafting to car care, from creative writing to beauty culture and the mainstream classes, for those wishing to take a more academic route are still excellent. Coordinators take hundreds of hours working to try and make our timetables fit the class schedules, and teachers are always willing to lend a hand, so although classes sometimes seem dull, remember it could be a lot worse.

faculty

principal's message

Graduation is always a time of mixed emotions. This year's senior class members will miss the familiar halls of Ainlay next September. Their daily rituals and their usual regimens will differ markedly when they enter university, college or the work place. New adventures will be theirs and each day will be filled with experiences to be enjoyed.

Students returning to Ainlay will also have opportunities to experience new and exciting activities. I would urge you to become involved in one or more of the many choices which are available in our school. Students should take the opportunity to register in courses such as business education or the fine and practical arts, to join a club, to participate in student government or to take part in any of the myrriad of extracurricular activities.

The secret to enjoyment is involvement and students who take advantage of the available opportunities will develop new friends and interests and, I am certain, will cherish and treasure these additional memories, from their high school years.

May your lives be filled with happiness and prosperity in the years to come.

our Staff

retiring teachers

The students and staff at Harry Ainlay would like to thank all this year's retiring teachers for their many years of hard work and devotion to the school. Not only have the retirees been teachers and school officials, but also friends and support to the many people during their stay at Ainlay.

Mr. Nicholson has been a huge part of school life at Ainlay over his six year term as principal. He has been an active part of the school community by happily participating in school activities. We have seen Mr. Nicholson as Santa Claus and strolling down the catwalk during the grad fashion shows. He has been spotted at many of Ainlay's sporting events wearing his Ainlay colours and cheering for our teams. Mr. Nicholson will be greatly missed by past and present students and teachers. Everyone at Harry Ainlay wishes him all the best in the future.

All the other retiring teachers and staff members will also be sorely missed. Their contributions to the school are so numerous that life at Ainlay will not be the same without them. We wish Mr. Melnychuk and Mrs. Campbell the very best in their retirement.

Good-bye, we'll miss you!

This year's open house was a great success. The Grad fashion show put on their second show of the day, which was extremely entertaining. Beauty culture gave free manicures, and the Jazz choir performed. Despite the power outage on the first night, the whole affair ran smoothly. The library held the grand opening of the new extension. Various clubs and teams had booths with displays in the cafeteria for others to see. The two days gave others the perfect opportunity to get a glimpse of school life at Ainlay.

teens for teens concert

The Teens for Teens benefit concert was a tremendous success. More importantly, $7000 was raised to help cover medical and other expenses for Paul McLeod and Cliff Moden, the two players who were left paralysed from the waist down after an accident on their way home from the Tri-Prov Basketball Tournament this year. The performers were, high school bands, "The Shapes of Things", "The Killing Floor", "The Color Black", and Juno award winners "Love and Sass."

winter carnival

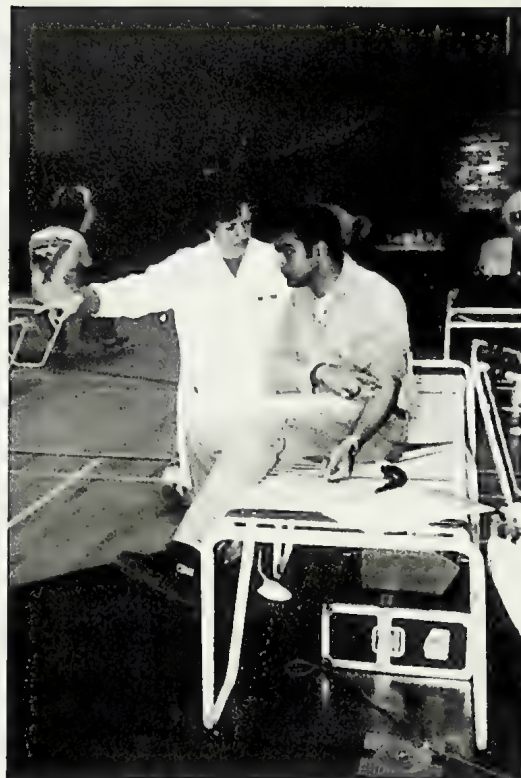

As a last celebration of winter, the S.U. planned a winter carnival. This was to be the last chance for Ainlay students to enjoy "that fluffy white stuff". Students were encouraged to get a team together and frolic in the snow outside the northwest entrance. The weather was perfect and a great time was had by all. Everyone especially enjoyed the free hot chocolate, donuts and great prizes. Hopefully this will become an annual event.

25th anniversary

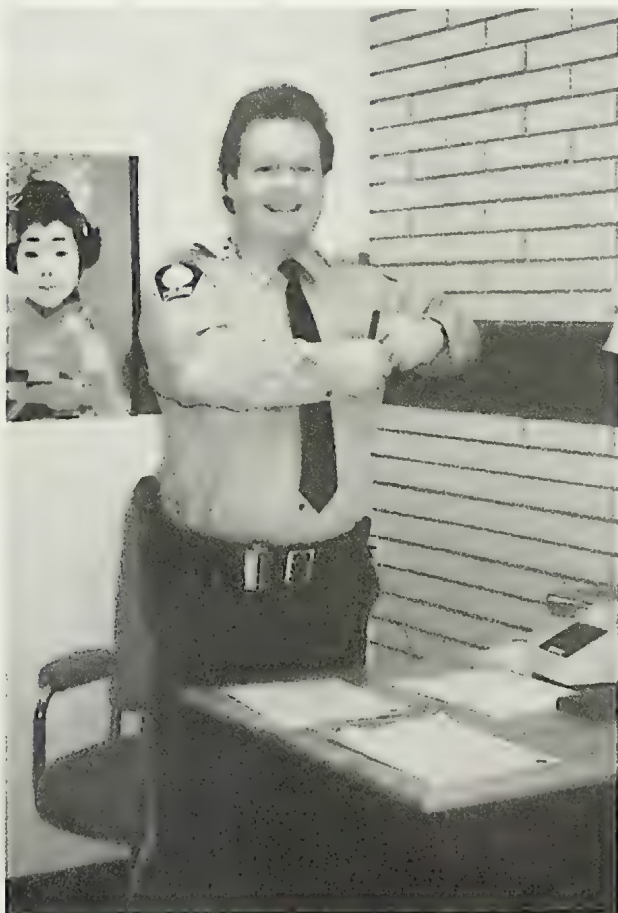

The twenty-fifth anniversary celebrations, or Homecoming, were held over the May long weekend. Events included such attractions as a historical fashion show, alumni sporting events, a slide show, and various displays throughout the school. A special luncheon was held on the Saturday, and a brunch on the Sunday. The Jazz choir sang, a drama 30 one act play was performed and an auto show was held in the parking lot. Graduates from all twenty-five graduating classes were in attendance. The weekend was a great success and we all hope to be invited to the fiftieth anniversary celebrations.

donor clinic and Cst. Schrader

This year's annual blood donor clinic, run by the Red Cross was a great success, with 188 units of blood donated. This represents a 50% increase over last year. The Olive Garden restaurant served cheesecake to all donors. Thank-you to all staff and students for making "The Gift of Life" available to so many.

I've been given the honour of contributing to the Titan Tradition. My message is a brief one, but one I hope all will take to heart.

High School often sets the stage for your future moral and societal values. I encourage all to get involved in both school and community activities, be it sports, groups or clubs. Get the most out of your High School and future years. Don't be afraid to get involved. We all have the responsibility and power to make our community and world a better place.

I would like to thank the students and staff for making my time at Harry Ainlay High School rewarding and enjoyable.

Sincerely,

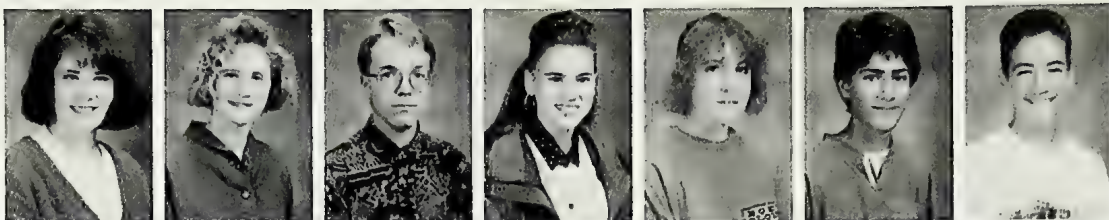

Constable David Schrader

band trip

This year, the Harry Ainlay music department travelled within Alberta and Saskatchewan playing at various festivals and schools. In November, the Concert band, Symphonic band, Choir, Jazz Choir, A Stage Band, B Stage Band as well as many small ensembles and soloist competed at Unfest 91 held on the University of Saskatchewan campus in Saskatoon. All of the Groups played extremely well. A Stage won the stage band competition and was asked to play at the grand awards concert. The four days spent in Saskatoon were both fun and musically educational. December saw A Stage Band spending two days in Jasper assisting Jasper secondary school musicians by holding clinics and playing with their senior band. The stage band also played a concert for the entire school. Spare time was spent skiing, nature hiking, and sightseeing at Milne Canyon.

In the spring, the music department attended four festivals in various locations. In Edmonton, instrumental groups played at Muicfest Alberta (northern region) and the Choral class sang at Kiwanis Festival. Towards the end of March, Jazz Choir, Concert band and Symphonic band travelled to Calgary for Musicfest Alberta (southern region). All groups performed well and received favorable evaluations. The final band tour this year saw Concert band and Symphonic bands play in the Alberta Association festival at the end of May.

 Mr. Olsen

The 1991/92 Students' Union would like to thank you for a great year. We tried to plan activities that would be entertaining for everyone such as Halloween and Hippy week. But what did we really do in our tiny little room? We made fun of our co-ordinated President, Vice-President, and bungee jumping Advisor. We listened to endless announcements courtesy of Garrett "the wind-bag" Poston. We tormented our poor little Grade 10 and 11 Reps. We read Dr. Seuss books like "The Cat in the Hat". We also stuffed numerous pages into the school directories; whose fault was that anyway?

In short, the S.U. tried to make school a little more bearable for you by giving you a few unusual events. At the end of the year we're still wondering just how we got elected! We hope you had a fun year. Good-bye and thank you once again.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Well, it's definitely been a full year and very interesting year ... what with new limbs on the SU every week and Geoff's always appreciated nasty comments ... it's incredible how fast time flies! Just a couple of days ago, it seems, we walked into the enormous school not knowing who to cling to or where to turn, and now that we've finally 'settled in', we've already having to move on ...

Everyone has their own memories of high school, but I think one thing we all share is the picture of a group of friends who always made us feel like we belonged. The friends who gave us confidence and courage and who let us be ourselves. I guess you could say these were the people, who despite all the times they stole and hide our 'crutches', would always bring them back and defend us if someone did the same. They kept us laughing and were always around to help make each day a little more interesting. No matter where we are ten, twenty or even fifty years from now, I'm sure we'll always remember these people, and the lasting impact they've had on our lives.

"You are gone now
but from this place
you silently took my hand, led me securely among lights, gave me a time to be happy in"

-Sandra j.k.m. bird

For the past three years, I've been proud to be a Titan, and it's hard to imagine not walking through the same familiar hallways and seeing the same familiar faces everyday. But, life is about changes and moving on, and it's about experiencing new things and meeting new challenges. I think high school will always be three of the most amazing years of my life, and I hope you can say the same. It's scary isn't it, to think that pretty soon we'll be the "movers and shakers" of the world, but in looking at the friends and acquaintances I've met these past years, I have a lot of faith in the future. I hope you'll never be afraid to be yourself and to fight for all you believe in. Don't ever let anything or anyone stand in the way of your hopes and dreams.

... but hopefully after we've all gone in our own directions, we may still meet as friends again someday, just as if we had never left.

"Someday we'll find it,
The Rainbow Connection,
The Lovers,
The Dreamers,
... and me."

Best of Luck!
Sincerely,

Mimi Liu

yearbook

Yearbook is a hardworking group of students who spend many lunch hours, Saturdays, and hours after school in our tiny room to create the book you are now reading. Although the creation of a 224 page book is a lot of hard work, the reward comes in September when the books come back from the plant and we get to see our creation. We are proud of this book and think it is one of Ainlay's best. Enjoy! Members: Marie Benbow, Mark Cahoon, Patrick Chan, Arynah Charania, Susan Coles, Julie Goo, Winnie Wong, Sameet Koppikar, Kurt Armbruster. Our staff sponsor was Mr. Povaschuk.

editor's message

Ainlay,

My yearbook year started when I was sent to the annual yearbook camp at camp He Ho Ha. I returned to Ainlay full of enthusiasm and great ideas. I was excited with the idea of being editor, and was ready for a great year. As it turned out, no one wanted to be my co-editor; Mark decided that he'd prefer to be "just a regular staff member", and Kurt wandered off soon to be captured by the Titanic. Although I was the only editor I had help from a lot of people.

We were ecstatic to have last year's books arrive much earlier than they had in the past, unfortunately we found a mistake on the awards pages. We then had to spend the next month waiting for correction stickers to come in, then sticking stickers in 2000 books! Huge thank-you's go out to everyone who helped in the sticker-ing process. I also have to give many thanks to Mark, Patrick and Marie who did so much throughout the year (Mark was even insane enough to come back and help after transferring schools!!). Mr. Povaschuk, our advisor; Mrs. Deptuck, our advisor that was; Zandra and Winnie, senior members; Julie and Amina, new members; and all our photographers also deserve thanks. For their hard work they have earned the privilege to grumble and complain all they want about the book. Thanks also go to S.U. and the Titanic who gave us photos, articles and much needed moral support.

I hope you had a great year, and enjoy the memories this book will bring you of it.

Congratulations to all those involved, and thank you to Mr. Klapstein who contributed much of his time to make the Regionals and Provincials beneficial to all.

The debate team this year was surprisingly successful after going without a school sponsor for most of the season. Although not many were involved, those who were put in a great amount of time and talent. Julianne Park and Oliva Tsai came in fourth at the regionals, and also participated in the Edmonton Public School Board exhibitional debate on school fees. Julianne also placed first speaker at the J. Percy Page Senior Open Debate. Dov Schiff and Wayne Fraser did extremely well for beginners placing first at their first tournament and eighth at the provincials. Dov placed third for speaker and eighth at the provincials. Heather Fitzsimmons and David Bunnin who were in Senior Open placed first at Percy Page and third at regionals, with Heather also placing first speaker at the latter.

The Titanic

The Titanic is a magnificent newspaper which has successfully put out four newspapers in 1991/92. We have a staff of approximately 15-16 people with other various writers and artists contributing. With a tremendous amount of help from a Macintosh computer, two ingenious editors and a creative staff, we create the masterpiece known as the Titanic.

The Ainlay Amnesty International Club, the first in a high school in Alberta has been a vibrant student social action group for five years. The steering committee of Mary Welch, Carolyn Kenzle, Liane Erickson and Mary Conquest initiate and plan various activities, promote awareness of social issues and network with other schools. Open forums, selling crafts, fundraising events, and hosting speakers are among the activities this year; the primary focus of the group is letter writing. Responses from governments around the world have been encouraging and challenging (we constantly seek out interpreters.) Through Amnesty's efforts, awareness of human rights and international issues has been heightened. Making friends and sharing thoughtful discussion has been an added benefit as well.

Why are guys like that? Why are girls so confusing? Why are parents so annoying? These are some of the problems we all face. Listen to conversations in the rotunda. The best "counsellor" is really a friend who will listen (the only difference between you and us is we get T-shirts.) We don't just sit and talk to people. We provide information about jobs, post-secondary education, other counselling agencies, birth control and health issues. If you have any questions or concerns they can be answered in the student services office (Rm 503) (We'll get our own office soon.) Peer Support is part of Ainlay tradition; students helping students.

Harry Ainlay was pleased to sponsor several students who attended the Encounters With Canada program at the Terry Fox Centre in Ottawa. This program offers one week sessions throughout the school term with the rare and unique experience of living with 130 young people from across Canada. These young people gather together to learn about each other, their ways of life, and about the uniqueness of Canada. The sessions offered are Arts and Culture, Science and Technology, Journalism, Law, Canadian Studies, and Business and Entrepreneurship. The student decides their area of interest and the week that is suitable to their program.

The Pottery club had two different sessions in the year; one in the fall, and one in the spring. The club was open to all students. The members improved their pottery techniques and learned to use the wheel. Everyone involved learned a lot and had a great time.

COMPETITIONS:

1. Canadian National Math Leagues

This is a series of 6 short contests that are given about a month apart starting at the beginning of November. Last year, Harry Ainlay was the provincial champion in this national competition.

2. Alberta High School Mathematics Competition

This competition is given in two parts. Round one is written in November and the top finishers are invited to participate in the second round in February. Last year, the first and second place prizes for the competition went to Harry Ainlay students. The top students at the end of the AHSMC are invited to write the Canadian Mathematics Olympiad in April. Participation in this competition is limited to the best mathematics students in the country, and over the last 3 years, Harry Ainlay has had from 3 to 5 students write each year.

3. Canadian Mathematics Competition

There are three different contests in this competition, the Cayley contest for Grade 10 students, the Fermat for Grade 11 students, and the Euclid for students in Grade 12. The Cayley and Fermat competitions are held in February while the Euclid contest is written in April. Students compete individually and as part of a team representing the school, and students and teams from Harry Ainlay usually finish near the top in the province.

4. American High School Mathematics Competition

The contest, written in late February, provides an opportunity for students to compete with students across North America.

In the Euclid competition this year, Ning Wu finished 4th in Canada among approximately 10,000 contestants - an outstanding achievement.

The eighth annual High School Science Olympics were held on November 23rd, 1991 at West Edmonton Mall. Sixteen Harry Ainlay students participated in five challenging events. Events varied from recycling to application of physical, biological, and chemical principles. Two of our four energetic teams earned medals for their efforts. Ainlay's "Einstein Who?" won a gold medal for the "Reuse - reuse - reuse" event and the "Harry Ainlay Olympians" won a silver medal for the "Caution! Compostible Materials".

The Harry Ainlay Climbing Club gives the opportunity to learn the fundamentals of climbing which include safety techniques, rope work, and general body movement. The activities of the club include lunch hour meetings and weekly trips to climbing walls in the city.

aerobics

On Wednesday, May 27, 1992, as part of Canada's Fitweek, Harry Ainlay hosted an aerobics instructor in the north field. For 20 minutes, many Harry Ainlay students took part in the aerobic activity to help Edmonton smash Calgary by having the record number of participants in Canada's Fitweek. It was a great way of showing Edmonton the Titan Spirit while helping Edmonton show Calgary our Spirit. K-97 was even there giving away many great prizes.

It was an enjoyable year for Harry Ainlay's table tennis club. Ainlay fared well at interschool tournaments. For many, ping pong was a way to spend the lunch hour after a hard and rigorous morning. Apart from having to settle with only one table, ping pong was fun indeed for everyone who was involved. The executives of the Ping Pong Club liked to see more people take up this paddle sport and enjoy themselves.

Club members met at noon to play and included: Sean Henderson, Rob Beatty, Alan Skinner, Nason Park, Geoff Dai, Andy Wang, Warren Crown, Neil McKill, Cory Clarke, Robbie Gutel

The purpose of the 1991-92 Harry Ainlay Dive Club is to generate greater interest in SCUBA diving and to allow the students an opportunity to attain different levels of certification. The Diving Club provides the students with various trips to California; Hornby Island, B.C., and Jasper for their open water certification. The Club is looking forward to planning a diving trip to Florida in 1993.

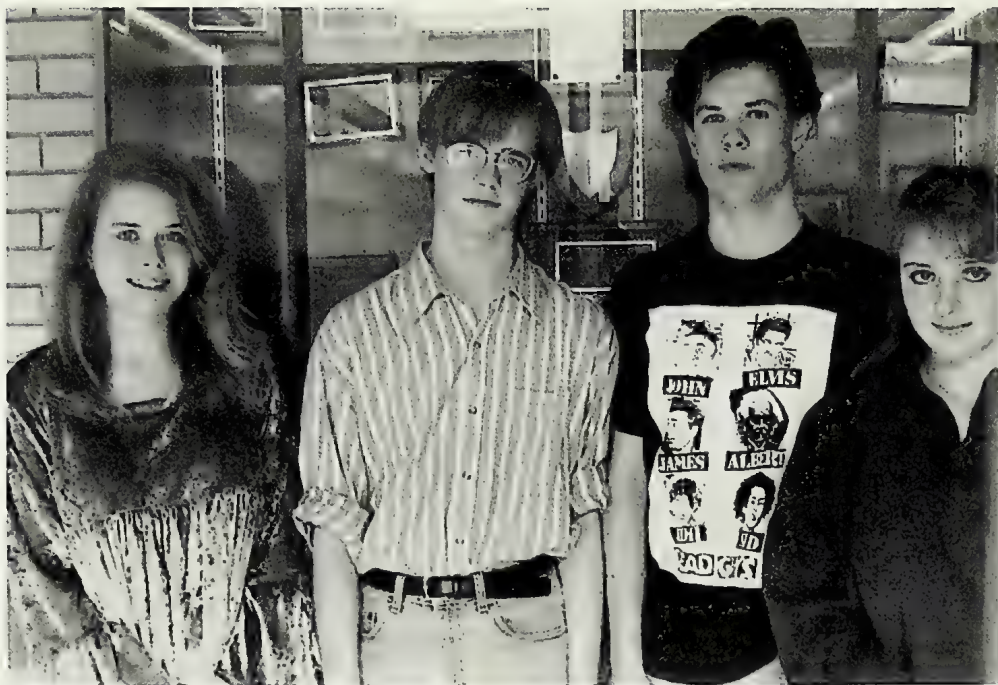

All students interested in discovering the wonders of the "DEEP BLUE SEA" are welcome to join the club.

TEAM D.I.C.K.Y.

Team DICKY had a successful year entering the three regional competitions (finishing 2nd, 1st, 1st respectively) and a surprising 3rd at the nationals. Team DICKY was unable to attend the world's due to loss of sponsorship (no thanks to Lady Evelyne).

Team captains: Mark Nimco (BM) and Todd Chebuk (SF). Other members include: Jason "arr Billy" Shave, Dan Costiganio (of the Costiganio family), infamous Ingbal "huh" Minjas, Ken, Ryu, Sagat, and Kevin Grimley.

The Difference

The Difference is a club devoted to encouraging others to be more Christ-like in their attitudes and actions. Through special speakers, videos, and topics discussed during weekly meetings, "The Difference" intends to make a difference in others' lives. This club is open to all staff and students.

The Difference would rather not publish the names of our members, because the club is ALWAYS open to new members, and works on a drop-in basis like a church.

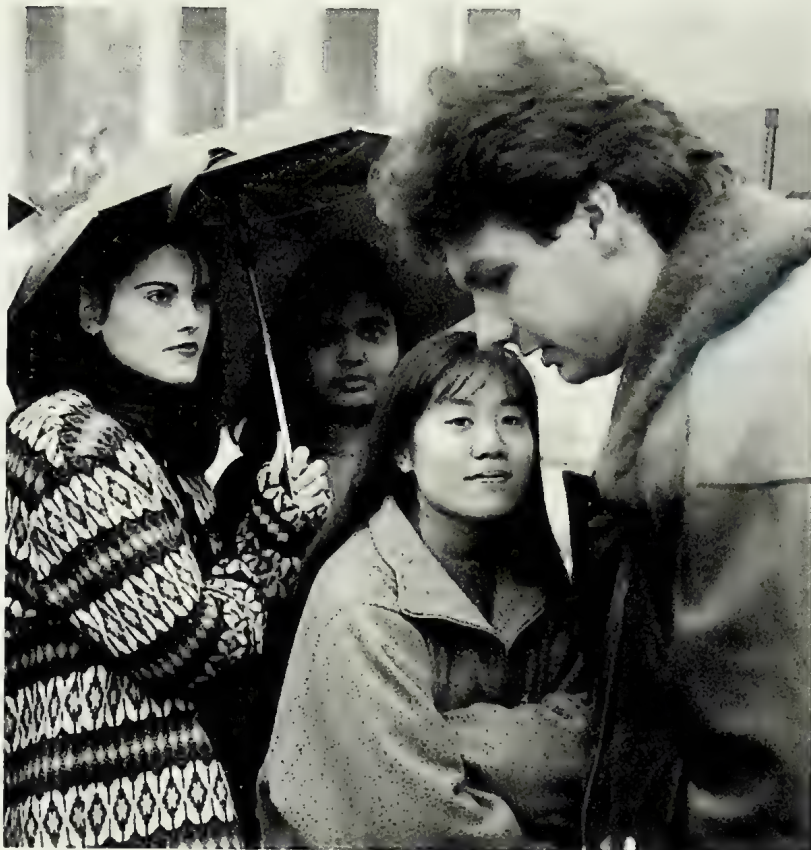

environment

The environment club is in response to the idea that more should be done for the environment, and is doing so. The club has undertaken several operations at Ainlay to do something about the environment. The two projects that most people are familiar with are the paper, Tetrapak and aluminum recycling programs. With the profits from these programs, two acres of rain forest was purchased through the World Wildlife Foundation to stop the logging of those areas. The club is also getting involved with an organization called GAIA which is concerned with the preservation of the northern boreal forests. They also plan to introduce a new box in the classroom for reusable paper.

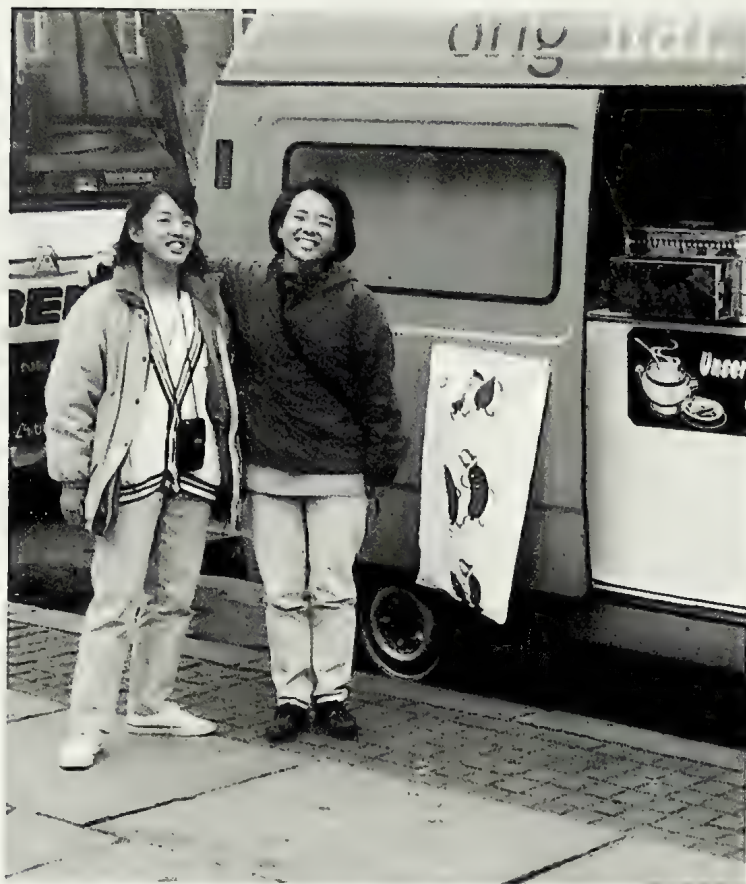

the difference & environment

On October 16, the grade 12 I.B. group headed off into the great unknown on a "west meets east" venture into a newly reopened Eastern Europe. But the first and most difficult step was to leave Edmonton. We left the day of the blizzard which made it difficult to get to the airport for all of us, but especially for one member of our group who will remain nameless (right Sasha?) who went to the International Airport instead of the municipal. So ... after Sasha arrived and we spent an hour and a half taxiing the runway, we were finally off to Calgary to catch our flight to Germany.

Berlin was our first stop, and the sight seeing began! There was so much to see, hear, smell and taste, especially once we passed on to our next stops, Prague and Budapest. We passed freely from the West to East, into countries that were now politically free, but imprisoned by their poverty, evident in the pollution, money exchange, and quality of food. We given the best they had to offer, but it was still foreign to our taste-buds, and stomachs! When we returned to the West, the prices were higher, the water was drinkable, and it was wonderful! We spent one night in a little town called Hallein, and the next day we were off on the final leg of our trip. We drove north into Germany via Neuschwanstein and some very twisty backroads accompanied by lovely travelling music at the suggestion of Dr. Mitchner (I still catch myself humming snatches of "The Sound of Music"). Munich was our final stop, and after a full day of shopping, our trip was complete. (save for the nine hour flight and jet-lag for the next week!)

So ... here's to blizzards, and Italian soccer players, and ketchup (you'll never let me forget that one will you!), and chicken (and more chicken ... obviously the food of choice), and Czechoslovakian appetizers!

Thank-you to Mrs. Tufts and Dr. Mitchner for putting up with a busful of rowdy I.B. students. It was well worth it!!

From Paris, we went by train to Nice and for 4 dyas toured the sunny French Riviera, including Monaco, Monte Carlo, and the beaches of St Tropez. Before returning home, we were able to spend another day enjoying the life of Paris. C'était magnifique!

leadership

Coordinated by Mr. Olsen and Mr. Babin, the new Leadership course helps students improve their leadership skills in all areas. Each student is involved in co-curricular activities and they establish a course logbook which must be kept up to date during the length of the year. We had a total of seven seminars this year and all of the sessions were held out of school at places like the University of Alberta, Barnett House and McKay Avenue School. A number of influential people spoke to us on topics ranging from communication to multiculturalism to group decision making and goal setting. The course provides a challenging and unique way to learn some of the most imperative skills needed in today's society with two of Ainlay's best teachers. Most of all, everyone of the '92 students involved had fun, met new people and became successful leaders!

Finally you are almost there, you graduate from high school and go to a post-secondary institution of your choice. EXCITED? "Nah - I don't even wanna hear about it." Well you shouldn't be because high school is much more fun than university or college. Just imagine; you will not be able to have lunch with your buddies, or see your best friends after school. That's just what might happen in university or college since you probably won't have the same schedule as your friends. You might think you will have more freedom in university or college, but you will be too busy to make much use of it. Hey, can't I make lots of friends there because there are so many people? No, You can make more friends now, right here in high school than anywhere else. Believe it or not. Someday a couple of years down the road you'll realize that high school life is truly the best of times. With very little to worry about except for exams, teachers are friendly, helpful and caring, and course material is relatively manageable in terms of quality. In college or university, you will find life harsh. Don't get me wrong, I do not intend to scare you. I only want to let you know the truth, so that you can really enjoy yourself now, and maybe have some expectations and preparations for your coming post-secondary education.

The 1991 ... season started with high hopes. Good ability and a good attitude were part of the team personality. However, early in the year the team struggled. The defense played great while the offense had some problems. At mid schedule the offense clicked and the defense disappeared. Anytime the offense and defense played well the team looked awesome. City Champ McNally's toughest game of the year was against the Titans (23-21). In the second division final Ainlay lost to Jasper Place on a last second TD pass.

The 1991 football season ended with the Titans in the City Championship game against Eastglen. Unfortunately we came out on the wrong end of the score, but had a successful season none the less. The high point of the season was undoubtedly defeating McNally in the semifinal game. Some individual award winners were: Grant Miles, Dell Joulie, Blane Cook, Derek Tabaka, Ryan Cammert, Scott Weisenburger, Dexter Bell. Leading scorer was Dave McLean. Coaches were Wayne Robinson, Dave Legg, Dave Cook, Greg Sychuk, Mr. Walker and head coach Mr. Erichsen. Sabrina Serber was the trainer.

The "91" Titans were a great example of "Titan Pride"! With only 4 returning players from the previous year's squad, this year's team was not predicted to be championship bound. However, even though somewhat inexperienced, these Titans made up for their lack of experience by working hard and playing with heart.

By the end of the season this "young" team was playing like a veteran squad and it showed when they won their road trip tournament - "Mustang Volley" in Saskatoon over the #1 ranked team from Manitoba. They carried this winning attitude right on to the City Championship where these Titans beat their arch-rival Scona 3-0 and avenged their loss to Scona the previous year.

A great season for the whole team and all-star honors to Doug Bruce and Jeff Reinprecht who shared captain duties throughout the season. The most improved player award was won by Bryan Wood.

The Senior Women's volleyball team completed another fine season, just short of reaching the pinnacle of success. The team started the year off with a very promising performance finishing second, and capturing the silver medal, at the University of Alberta Tournament. Power hitter, Carolyn Frans was selected to the Allstar team and the year was off to a great start. Carolyn's outstanding play would only continue as the year progressed. She inspired her teammates to raise their playing level to new heights. Karli Anderson, Sara Hilton and Daisy Groff were all instrumental in the team's success at different times throughout the season. The Titans were defeated in the semifinals by the McNally Tigers. Special congratulations go to Renuca Modi, The Most Improved Player Award, Tommi Steadward for receiving The Most Outstanding Contributor Award, and Carolyn Frans The Most Valuable Player Award. Another great year was experienced by all, with lots of fun and volleyball. Thanks to everyone involved from coaches Jamie and Travis Lamb.

The Jr. Titans experienced an enjoyable, successful season. Finishing second in regular season play and achieving two silver medals and a bronze medal in tournament play, the Jr. Men entered the city play-offs with great anticipation and desire to defend its city championship. After receiving a bye in the quarterfinal, the Titans defeated Spruce Grove 3-1 in the semifinal giving them the opportunity to play in the city final. In the Premier City Championship, the Jr. Men came from behind to defeat McNally 3-2 and capture the city championship. Well done Titans and congratulations on your successful season!

The Junior Women's Volleyball team started the season off very strong. They won gold medals at the Western Tournament (Calgary) and the Salisbury Tournament. This success continued into the Titan Junior Classic with another medal.

After placing fourth in league play the team had their work cut out for them to make the final. The Titans worked hard in the quarterfinals to advance to the Semifinals against McNally. Defeating McNally moved the team into the Premier Championship against Scona. In this final match the Titans lost their first two games but with true team determination and skill, the Titans were triumphant -- winning the Premier Championship for 1991.

Congratulations to a successful team- who believed --- "TOGETHER AS A TEAM WE CAN TAKE IT TO THE LIMIT!!"

TVT

By Garrett Poston

The twelfth annual Titan Volleyball Tournament took place October 10-12, 1991. The organization class, excitement and action showcased during the tournament, has resulted in TVT earning a reputation as being one of the premiere high school volleyball tournaments in all of Western Canada.

At the TVT Opening Ceremonies, to the great appreciation of the crowd, Bam-Bam, Ainlay's brand new mascot, was unveiled to the beat of "Thunderstruck".

After two and a half days of hard fought matches, the champions of TVT XII were crowned. In the men's final, Saturday afternoon, the Grande Prairie Tomahawks defeated the Salisbury Sabres to capture the gold medal. Ainlay defeated the E.P. Scarlett Lancers to capture the bronze medal. The West Vancouver Highlanders defeated the Earl Morriot Mariners to capture the women's championship. Salisbury took the women's bronze as they defeated the Wetaskiwin Sabres. The Ainlay women finished a respectable fifth in a field of incredible competition.

TVT XII was nothing but a success, along with the organizers and players, this can be attributed to the fan support at Ainlay. But then, with the bounteous amount of "Titan Pride" at Ainlay, it would be impossible for an Ainlay sporting event not to be deemed a success.

The 1991 Cross-Country team was 18 members strong and was the most dedicated group of runners since I've been coaching at Harry Ainlay (1986 was my first year). They worked hard in practice and had a lot of fun. The pizza parties were excellent. Thanks to Doa for the use of his parents house. Thumbs down to Sasha Nowicki for the suggestion that everyone get large size jackets. They ended up looking like "dresses" on some people (Sonia Zimmerman). Thumbs up to Sonia for getting her boyfriend and basketball fanatic, Mark Humphrey to join the team. Everyone performed well, especially in the ultimate frisby games on Fridays. Three members made the provincial team; Sasha Nowicki, Sonia Zimmerman and Darcy Atkinson. Congratulations, it was a pleasure working with you. You were Simply the Best. Mr. M. Powell

The Greater Edmonton High School Curling League concluded round-robin play in January, 1992. Several of our five teams came close to winning their sections; however, only one team emerged as a winner. Congratulations are extended to the mixed team skipped by Kurt Armbruster for winning the aggregate trophy this year. The two teams which competed in the Greater Edmonton Playdown to try to earn a berth in the Provincial Playdowns were the Senior Girls' and Senior Boys' teams. Our teams did not advance past this competition, but congratulations are in order to the players for maintaining a positive attitude and conducting themselves in a manner which their school and family can be proud of. The coach, Dennis Annesley, would like to thank teacher assistants Rick Smyth, Bob Dearborn and Jim Deptuck for their support.

Harry Ainlay's Water polo team won the City Final game over previously undefeated Ross Sheppard. The team came back from a 3-0 deficit to win 8-6. Chris Street and Danielle Boisvert were named final game MVP's. This is the first Water polo Championship for Harry Ainlay. Obviously the team had a very successful season and are looking forward to further success next year. Congratulations on a job well done!

The Harry Ainlay men's golf team won their first ASAA provincial golf title on September 28th at the Lac LaBiche Golf and Country Club. The tournament was held over two days with men's and ladies' high school teams from across the province competing for individual and team titles.

An Ainlay team has represented Edmonton on five previous occasions in the past nine years. This victory is, however, the first provincial championship won by the men's golf team. The Ainlay team looks forward to defending its championship next year.

The senior women's team this year enjoyed modest success in a highly competitive league. They both won, and lost very close games. The team ended up in second place in the standings. Following on the heels of undefeated league play, the Harry Ainlay Titan Senior Men's Basketball team swept through the play-offs without a loss. They defeated Ross Sheppard in the Public League final 71-48. Their thrashing of Metro #2 team, Holy Trinity, 115-65, coupled with Ross Sheppard's defeat of Metro #1, Bev Facey, solidified the Titans #1 spot in Edmonton. They went to the Provincial Championship as the #1 seed in Alberta and they didn't disappoint. They made it to the finals and won their second Consecutive Provincial Championship.

track and field

Once again the Titans finished second at the City Championships. This year for the first time in six years Harry Ainlay won their Division (qualifying round for the city championships). Second is actually first amongst city high schools that offer more than one sport during the track season (Scona only offers ONE sport: TRACK). There were outstanding performances from Sasha Nowicki, Paula Foht, Simon Baffoe, Kim Claffey and Nikola Starko. They represented Edmonton at the Provincial Track meet where Simon won silver medals in the 4 x 100, 100m and 200m respectively. Excellent. The other team members

SCHOOL AND BUSINESS PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM

An exciting innovation which came to life this year was the pilot partnership between Eaton's (Heritage) and Harry Ainlay.

The purpose of this partnership is to give Harry Ainlay access to such resources as Personnel Services in connection with our work-experience programme.

Other involvements with Eaton's staff were the Welcome Barbecue, fashion shows, the Christmas shopping benefit, as well as, their sponsorship of T.V.T. and TRI-PROV to which they gave their support and expertise.

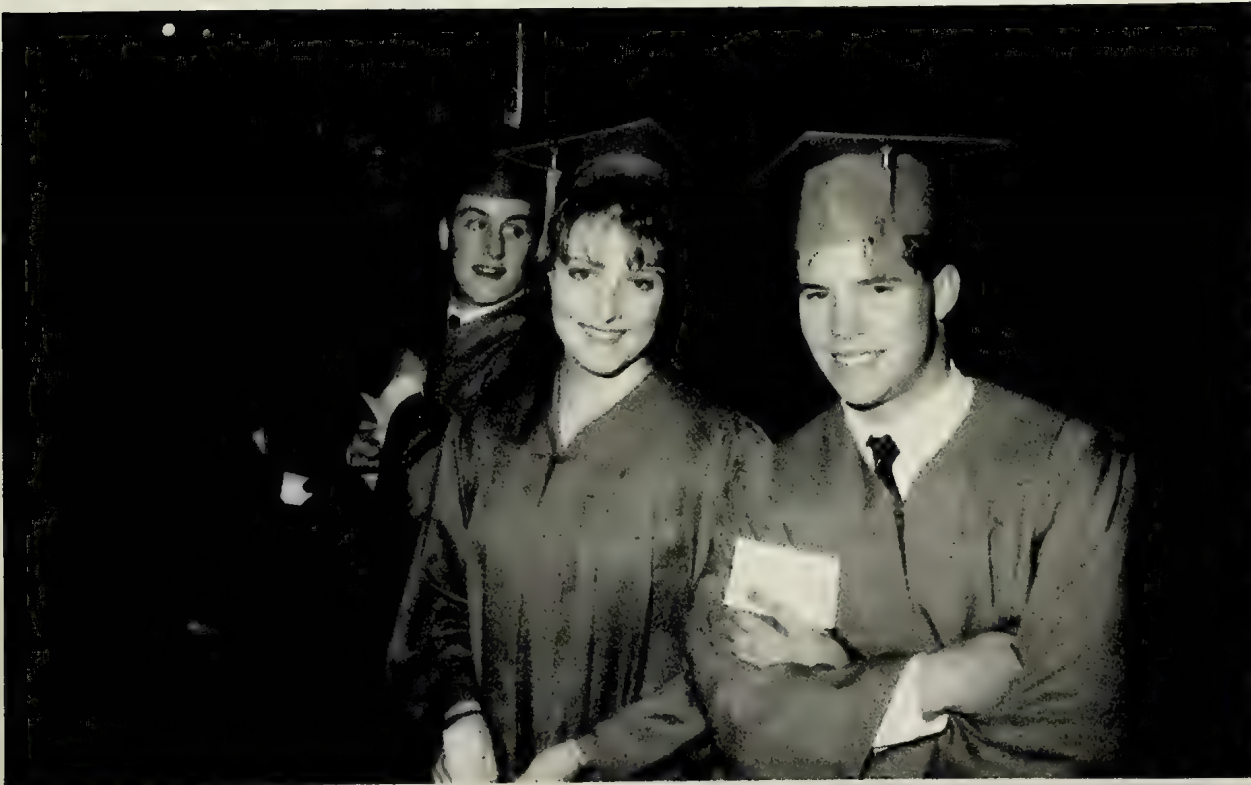

We have benefitted greatly from Eaton's guest speakers who charmed many of our students with their informative presentations.

Initially an experiment between business and education, the partnership will be formalized in the Fall of 1992.

The immediate success of this venture has generated an enthusiasm within the school to reach out to other appropriate segments of the business world in our community.

This awareness of the role the community plays in the education of our youth marks a new era for Harry Ainlay.

GRADUATION EXECUTIVE 1992

President	Patricia Bathory Frota
Vice-President	Victoria Steele
Banquet Chairperson	Stephen Schinke
Commencement Chairperson	Trish Agrell-Smith
Fundraising Chairperson	Paula Foht
Publicity Chairpersons	Polly Cooper & Lana Lien
Secretary	Carrie Hirsche
Treasurer	Gene Filanovsky
Senior Class Representative	Carl Hansen
Advisors	Mrs. P. Baker, Mrs. A. Bursey, & Mr. G. Wynn

The graduation council put a lot of endless hours into the organization of commencement and banquet. At first there was the fundraising: bottledrives, Texas donuts at lunch, pizza ... we even sold dates to raise some extra money.

May came faster than we expected, and with it, the thrills of ticketselling, booklet folding, stapling. And we all had to go through everything everybody else had to go through too: picking the perfect date, finding the most awesome dress/tux we could, and above all coping with tests and field trips on the week of the ceremonies (Sorry Mr. Whoever, but I won't be here on Friday because I have to tan, I have to get my hair done, my nails done, oh and I'll have to get my face done too! What do you mean we're expected to be here? What midterm? Well, then I'll just have to make up this mark with the diploma - no problem!!)

Needless to say we eventually got it all together and grad was an evening to remember. Thank you to all those whose help was essential for the success of the ceremonies.

Patricia Bathory-Frota

The graduation council has had an exciting and prosperous year. We have worked with teachers and the student body to make sure this graduating year is memorable to all involved. Through the year, different fundraising events were held in an attempt to make commencement and the Graduation banquet a complete success. The graduation council was involved with the organization of the annual grad fashion show, and grad pictures. With great dedication and enthusiasm the graduation council has been able to make this year's grad one of the best ever.

Special thanks to Mrs. Baker, Mr. Bursey, and Mr. Wynn.

Fellow graduands, teachers, honored guests, Good Evening.

As I have been sitting here tonight, staring at this array of familiar faces, I have been thinking about how hard we have all been trying to grow up, and how much we have been looking forward to graduation. But now, the time has finally come, and we share a sense of mixed emotion-of excitement and anticipation, satisfaction, relief, and fear. We are all faced with difficult decisions and plans for the future, but it is important to reflect upon the times we have shared, and the experiences which have made us who we are.

These twelve long years of schooling have often been much like those long winter days, where the temperature drops below 30 degrees, and the wind gives you chills. Do you remember the first day of kindergarten? - the day when you didn't know anyone, or anything, and didn't want for anyone or anything, except your mother? It was definitely cold then. But, just as winter turned to spring, that kindergarten class you so feared became warm, and the unknown faces became friends. Seasons have passed, the surroundings are different, and the faces have changed, but the feelings remain the same.

As we rest upon the threshold of another new beginning, we realize that Harry Ainlay has been much more than just a school. It has provided us with the warmth of those kindergarten classrooms. It has offered us an unforgettable opportunity to learn, to discover both our strengths and weaknesses, to meet new challenges, and, to experience true success. Most importantly, however, our time at Ainlay has allowed each of us to meet a group of very special people, and to form many long-lasting friendships. Our friends have allowed us to be ourselves, to enjoy the good times, to survive the bad times, and to chase our dreams. As Edward Everett Hale once said,

"The making of friends, who are real friend, is the best token we have of a person's success in life."

Although it will be difficult to leave the comfort of Ainlay, we must look towards the future, and continue to pursue our dreams. I offer you, my friends and peers, only one piece of advice. In the words of Robert Fulghum,

"Most of what (you) really needed to know about how to live, and what to do, and how to be, (you) learned in kindergarten ... This is what (we) learned: Share everything. Play fair. Don't hit people. Put things back where you found them. Clean up your own mess.

Don't take things that aren't yours. Say you're sorry when you hurt somebody. Wash your hands before you eat. Flush ... Take any one of those items and extrapolate it into sophisticated adult terms and apply it to your family life or your work or your government of your world, and it holds true and clear and firm."

Most of all, don't forget your friends, don't forget yourselves, and never forget your dreams. Always keep the spirit of Ainlay close to your hearts, and strive to be happy. I am confident that you, the graduating class of 1992, will all continue to be successful in your endeavours, and I wish you the best of luck. To our friends, teacher, and families - thank you for your care and support. I would also like to personally thank my parents and my brother for their endless encouragement.

T: Tonie
A: Andy
G: Geoff
M: Mimi

Lights out. Intro tape begins. T and A head towards podium. A has a guitar and T has drum sticks.

Lights come on.

(T: This set up really sucks man!)

A: All right it's 12 o'clock Saturday Night, time to PARTY. I'm your excellent host Wayne Cambell, with me always is Garth.

T: Party on Wayne!

A: Party on Garth! Alright, okay, before we begin our show tonight we wou...

Enter M and G, discussing how they'll stop A and T.

G: Uhhh, ex-squeeze me but it's Wednesday night and it's not time to party just YET.

M: But you are still Wayne and Garth ...

G and M: NOT!

T: Okay. Fine. But at least let's have a dreamy look back into our high school years.

A: Ready ... okay now.

A and T go into dream sequence.

M: Grade 10

G: Good morning, and you children are ...?

M: My name is Mimi Liu

A: My name is Andy Shaw

T: I'm not here until Grade 11. (Sits down.)

M, G, and A looking around in awe as if to be lost.

M: Wow! Look at the size of this school. It's sooo big! I'll bet you it has over 2000 students, over 100 teachers, and is the biggest school in Western Canada!

G: Good plus Mimi. (Tonie stands up)

A: Ah, excuse me, but what is this, this, this thing in the middle of the school?

T: Oh! You must mean the Rotunda. This is the posh hangout of all of Ainlay's upper class skippers and sociable types. I am sure that one of you will find this place to be a second home of sorts.

M and G look at A.

A: What are you looking at me for?

End dream sequence.

A: Well I guess I did make quite a few good friends in Rotunda 10 (M, T and G looking him down) 20 and 30.

G: Grade 10 turned out to be a very exciting year. Ainlay's sport teams won in Senior Boys' Volleyball, Junior Boys' Basketball, and placed very well in all other sports.

M: Ben Johnson disappointed Canada when he tested positive for Steroid use.

A: Also the Berlin Wall fell.

M: Remember your first day in the library.

T: Yeah you were there quite a bit.

G: (singing) I'm to sexy

A: Right Said Fred.

T: He was almost as comprehensible as George.

M: Yeah those great assemblies.

T: We as students learned to dress lazy for finals, but the most important thing we learned in Grade 10 was

All: SCONA SUCKS!

M: Due to the fact that Grade 10 isn't really a year which stands out as being the best year of high school or that it may even want to be forgotten by some, we'll just move along to Grade 11.

G: For this dream sequence, picture three Ainlay boys relaxed in the Rotunda trying to plan their weekend.

A, G, and T pretend to be relaxed in the Rotunda.

A: Are going to the dance tonight? I mean it is the first dance of the year.

Before T or G has a chance to answer.

M: Of course you're going to the dance. Everyone goes to the first dance of the year. The tickets cost $5.00 for S.U. members and $8.00 for non-S.U. members, so everyone come out and enjoy because it will be the best dance of the year.

T: Good plug Mimi. How many times have we heard that one?

G: Sorry guys, I can't make it - I.B.

M, A, and T try convincing G.

M: Who cares Geoff, I'm in S.U. and I.B. and I'm still going.

A: Yeah, well I'm in Drama and considered a Pretty Boy and I'm still going.

T: I'm a Bros fan and I'm going.

G: Okay okay I'll go but how will we get there?

M: I'm driving now so I'll pick you guys up.

G, T, and A look nervously at each other.

T: Women drivers

M: Hey Sids taught me well.

G: We could always walk and opt for a Party.

A: Yeah I hear Jeff Wolmacks and Marty Winch are throwing some bashes.

T: What else is new!

M: (Acting normal desperate) Oh, by the way will you guys participate in our S.U. activities next week.

A: Cha Hright!

G: Anyway, T.V.T. and Triv-Prov are both next weekend.

T: Okay so they're not but we have to mention as many things as we can.

M: I have a strange feeling that both our Senior boys' teams will be victorious.

T: But what about the senior girls' teams.

A: You mean there are senior girls' teams?

G: We're not insulting women, but how students actually showed up for any of the girls' games, that is besides the Anderson family.

End dream sequence.

M: Now we'll dwell on some of the finer courses offered here at Ainlay.

G: From Drama with Father Christmas

A: Whom the Academy would like to thank for leading several one act plays to provincial competition.

G: To Ainlay's music program

T: Which includes the numerous bands, and the happenin', soul glowin', toe tappin', gut wrenchin' doo-wop sound of the Ainlay Jazz choir.

All: Into song.

M: We mustn't forget the demanding trade courses which prepare a once thought of simple high school student for post-secondary institutes such as Devry's and ITT tech..

G: But the most important thing we learned in Grad II was

All: Brick doesn't burn.

T: All those false fire alarms! What's up with that?

A: So now we'll move onto Grade 12. It was the year of the Titan.

M: My parents told me it was the year of the Dragon.

G: ... the year of racial tension (G ducks)

T: ... the year Ainlay was in the paper more times than Brian Mulroney's good ideas.

A: ... the year of the Rotunda Dancer

G: ... the year we all had to skip period 5 to get our attendance letters.

M: ... the last year of Ainlay for Mr. Nicholson

G pulls out a piece of Kleenex

T: ... the year we lost our Rotunda Lawn furniture

A: ... the year of the weightlifters

M: You guys weightlift?

A, G, and T all look nervous

T: uh, yeah, well, um

G: ... and finally the year the donuts went scarce in the cafeteria.

T: What was his name Constable

A: Ainlay also had their fare share of injuries.

G: Whether they were from sports, from accidents

G looks at Mimi

M to G

M: From falling pianos

T breaks up the tension

T: or from falling ladders, Ainlay had its share.

Little pause. Mimi walks towards veiled Top ten list. Wayne and Garth take their seats. Geoff stands wherever.

G: We have a little something to sum up our high school years.

M: Yes, a top ten list.

A: Mimi please.

M unveils top ten list.

A, G and T bow together

Guys: WE ARE NOT WORTHY! WE ARE NOT WORTHY!

T: Thank you Connie Chung.

A: Good call!

A and T do Top ten list Wayne and Garth intro.

A and T- high five.

A: Number 10

T drumroll. M pulls out card.

T: Getting your driver's License.

G: (with hands on A's and T's shoulders) That is for those of us who have

T: (cutting G off) Uh-hh Number 9 please.

T drumroll. Mimi.

A: Entertainment

T: We as students were entertained by various artists such as Paul Simon, Dire Straits, Metallica, Van Halen, AC/DC, The Cult and Lenny Kravitz, N.K.O.T.B., Plaid Transmission, and Love and Sas at the Teens for Teens benefit concert.

A: Also Hammerman invaded West Ed. Mall

G: (singing and dancing) to legit, to legit to quit.

M: We were also entertained by Child's Play, the trilogy ends; T2, Wayne's World, Die Hard, Predator

T: And don't forget Basic Instinct! What a babe?

A: She's more than a babe, she's a babaholic and she needs help. I should I'm a practicing babetician.

G: Alright, Number 8 please.

T drumroll ... runs out of breath.

A: Garth dude, take your ridelen.

T: Thanks man, I was starting to hyperventilate.

M: (pulls card) Support Staff Strike Ends

G: This really struck I.B. hard. We couldn't calculate our averages.

T and A talk interrupting G

A: Remember when we plugged the toilets?

T: Yeah and we could throw our trash everywhere....

G: (loud whisper) Pissst. Guys.

T and A realize that everyone can hear.

T: (embarrassed/nervous) Number 7

A: CALM 20

T: Yeah, like I didn't know what a condom was for before this class!

G: And thank god they taught us that after high school you could go to University.

A: I think this is the only high school course that you can skip twice a week, finish the final in less than a half an hour, and still get over 80.

T: I think I learned more sex-ed on Pee-Wee's Playhouse.

G: My life sure has benefitted ... you know that impotency thing.

A: Total anti-shwing. Shwing.

T: Shwing.

M: Come on guys, it wasn't that bad, my self-esteem boomed after CALM, hell I became prez.

G: Good plus Mimi.

A: Alright, alright, let's go on.

T: Number 6 please, (Mimi) The Rob Lowe Video Incident

A: I'm sorry but with this AIDS scare bit and everything at least he knew who he had slept with.

G: Number 5 please

A: Turning 18

T: Cool dude, Uncle Al served us well.

G: and Maxwell's.

A: And Earl's

M: And Red Robins

T: And all the other 1293 licensed restaurants and clubs in Edmonton.

G: Our homes away from the Rotunda.

A: Okay Mimi, Number 4.

T: Stephanie Seamour appears in Playboy.

A: Prrrrrr.

T: Shwing

G: Shwing

A: Shwing

G: Total tent pole action.

(If possible T hides music comes in and he does his Foxy lady bit.)

A: What a babe. If she were cupcakes she'd be a Babers dozen.

G: She's so hot, the Green house effect's turning Red.

M: Excuse me. (looking utterly disgusting)

G: Baking Soda!

M: Half of Ainlay is female.

G and T: Our point exactly. Total babes.

A: No, no wait guy she has got a point. Mimi please.

T: Nick Nolte voted sexiest man alive. What a duck, all those chicks.

M: Thanx.

A: Number 3 please.

T: White rapper Vanilla Ice.

A and T: NOT!

A: Who does this guy think he is. (Cut of some sort.)

T: Yeah go play with Pee-Wee.

G: Number 2.

M: Friendship.

A: (In background vice) Bring on the sap.

All sit together on the couch.

T: The friends we made

G: The friends we have

M: The friends we lost

A: The friends we bought

T: And through it all, the good and the bad,

G: We couldn't have made it without friends.

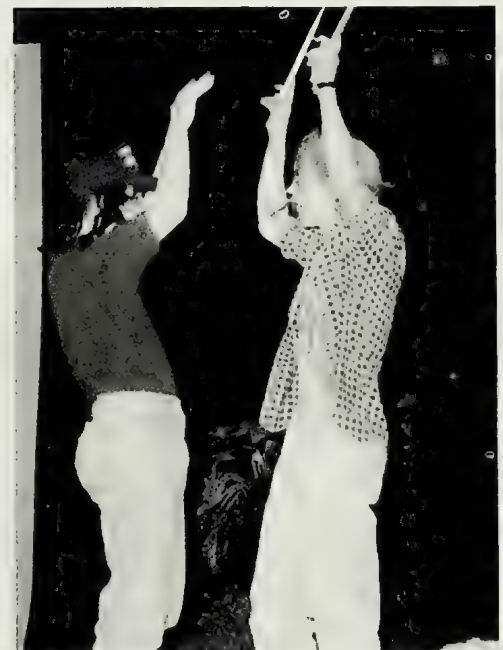

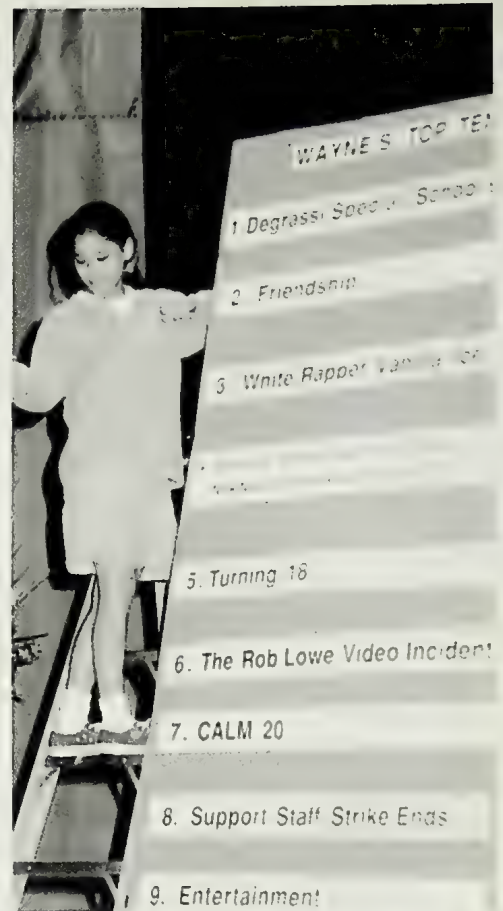

M: AGT bringing your world to you.

A: And now for the number 1 event of High School.

T drumroll.

All: Degrassi special "Schools Out"

A: Yes, the time had come for the T.V. show, that had not only become an institution but a lifestyle, to come to its dramatic finale. It took a cold, harsh look at high school life and showed to us the agonizing shortcomings of our lives. But more importantly, Joey Jeremiah pulled that scam on Katelin and scored with that totally awesome babe.

WHERE EVERYBODY KNOWS YOUR NAME

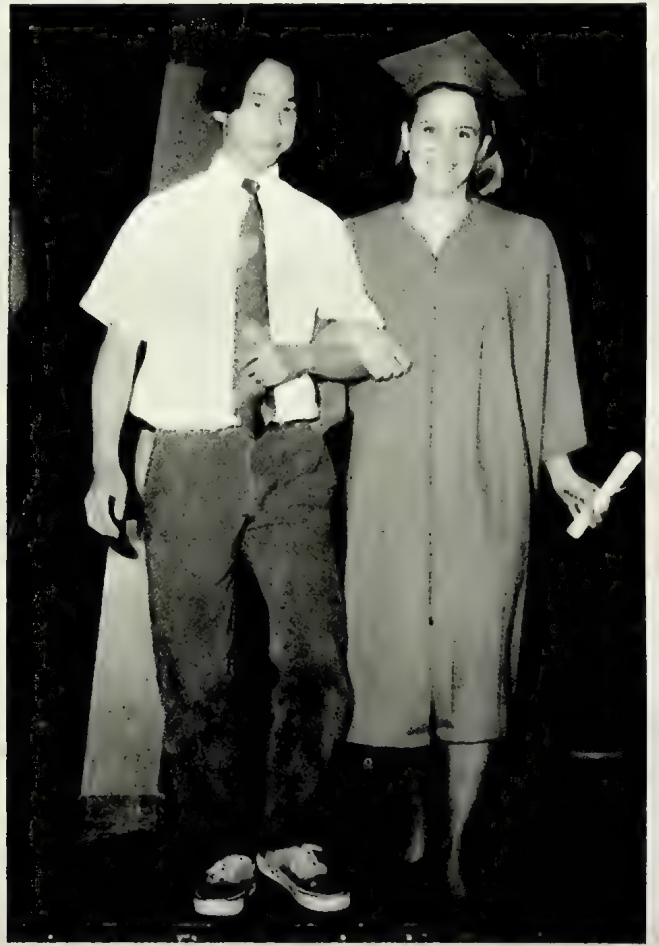

Making your way in the world today
Takes everything you've got
Taking a break from all your worries
Sure would help a lot.
Wouldn't you like to get away
Sometimes you want to ...

Go where everybody knows your name
And they're always glad you came
You want to go where you can see our troubles are all the same
You want to go where everybody knows your

THE YEAR THAT WAS 1992

August was still a holiday, or so I wish to assume.

But it really slowed my day

To have to register so soon

But as I stood there in line

Thinking things through.

I hoped it would be amusing

The year that was 1992

September kicked off school,

and school kicked me

A whole new bunch of rules, to follow to a tee.

lots of notes to take,

and books to read too

just trying to stay awake

In the Year that was 1992

October turned the leaves red

A sure sign it was fall

We were too busy with our work

To care about it at all

Halloween was a holiday like any other

We were supposed to dress up and go "boo"

But we're too mature to bother

In the year that was 1992

November was rigid and cold

Inside the school as well as out

The hearts turned on, we were told

But somehow I had my doubts

The snow fell in installments

And there was so much to do

Skates and skis were brought from the basement

In the year that was 1992

December was really jolly

With gifts passed all around

Hanging on the walls was holly

And fluffy snow on the ground

Christmas was beginning

And Christmas Holidays too

As everybody revealed their true

In the year that was 1992.

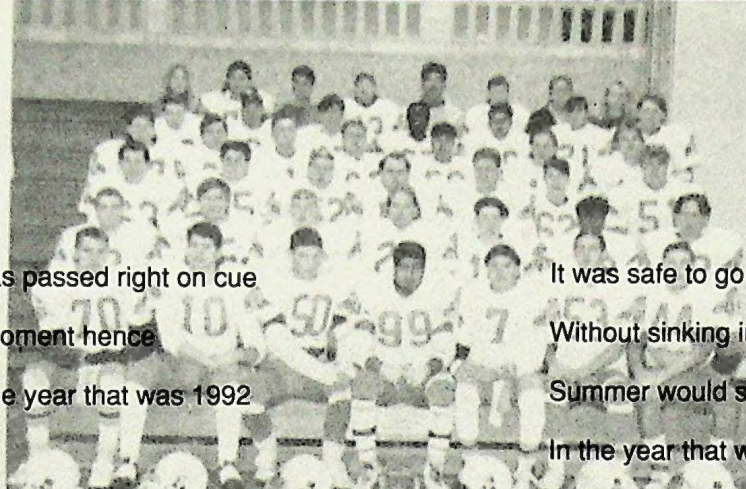

We returned from our vacation in January

From feasting on turkey and ham

We were greeted by our teachers

Who gave us midterms and final exams.

Well at least this poem now makes sense

The year has passed right on cue
From this moment hence
It really is the year that was 1992

It was safe to go outside again
Without sinking in the muddy spew
Summer would soon return to us
In the year that was 1992

February was past deep winter

But definitely before spring

Some people finally realize in school
they have not learned a thing

For a moment put education aside

And prepare to say "I love You"

For Valentine's day has arrived.

In the year that was 1992

March was a month that was brief

Like the change from winter to spring

Birds are returning from southern reefs

To sit on our fences and sing

Saint Patrick's day was green

From clovers to Irish stew

But not a four leaf clover was seen

In the year that was 1992

April was supposed to bring showers

After the melted snow

The garden gave us flowers

And the lawn would eventually be mowed

May was a warm month

Ignoring that off season blizzard

It was time to play outdoors

With all the rabbits and lizards

School was winding down

Only one month before we're through

It's been an interesting year

The year that was 1992

June is the end of the line

"Adios" as they say

Only a few weeks of time

Before the last day

But a little suffering will come first

As there are more exams to do

I hope I survive the final stretch

Of the year that was 1992
